Total Transit Drives To End Domestic Violence

$1 per ride taken with Discount Cab on Oct. 18 to go to local domestic violence charities

PHOENIX (Oct. 17, 2013)—On Friday, Oct. 18, Total Transit will donate $1 per ride taken (up to $5,000) in a Discount Cab to two charities in the Valley that provide support and shelter to women and children affected by domestic violence: Homeward Bound and Sojourner Center.

October 18 is ‘Wear Purple Day,’ the national Domestic Violence Awareness day where every member of the community is asked to wear purple and make a renewed commitment to end domestic violence in our community. Total Transit is asking its independent contractor drivers to wear purple on Friday.

In Arizona alone, there are more than 28,000 crisis shelter calls of domestic violence each year. There are close to 6,000 unmet requests for shelter annually in Arizona due to lack of resources. One in 4 women and one in 12 men is a victim of domestic violence.

“We want to do our part to support the community,” said Total Transit CEO Craig Hughes. “We have worked with Homeward Bound for the past 10 years and have had the honor of driving these moms where they need to go so that they can get to work and support their families. It makes us feel so good to be able to do this, and we’re proud to give back on this special day.”
